NOU has the unique ability, through the visual live-art performance, to prevent a live concert audience from going into "speaker mode." Eric has shared the stage and presented with a exhaustive list of today's Christian Bands. Just a few for reference are: Casting Crowns, Charlie Hall, Shane and Shane, Jeremy Camp, David Crowder Band, Family Force Five, Fee, Starfield, August Burns Red, The Devil Wears Prada, Leeland, and many more.

Community Outreaches:

These outreaches provide many young people, parents and others an opportunity to hear and see a clear presentation of the gospel. By having concerned parents, students, businesses and churches all collaborate to organize outreaches makes it a true kingdom effort for the community.

Short Missions Training:

NOU Specializes in training and development of short term missions teams to equip them to perform live art on the mission field. Each presentation taught is presentable with little or no artistic ability.

Speaking Presentations with Live Art Performance:

10-60 min.

Reverend Eric Samuel Timm has a very captivating and unique preaching, teaching, and evangelistic style. His messages and presentations are always visually stimulating and characterized by an authentic style that is attractive to both the Church and someone that does not have a relationship with Christ. This natural out of the box flow gives Eric creditability outside the walls of the Church and to people on the fringe of faith. Professional peers traveling today express that Eric is a world class communicator. Many past audience members will agree that the only reason you don't like Eric as a speaker is because you haven't seen him. Below is a few of those past presentations.

Repaint Jesus

The message of Repaint Jesus stirs hearts and challenges the audience to be Jesus' hands and feet. Eric uses the story of The Good Samaritan to unmask the importance of painting Jesus correctly to our family, church family, community and the world. The audience is left with a direct challenge to live their lives in a way that draws people to Christ not pushes people from Him. To "Repaint Jesus" to the world.

Black and White Issues

The audience is presented with the answer to find the missing piece in all our lives by filling the God shaped hole in our hearts with relationship with Jesus Christ. It is a black and white issue that we all need Christ, there is no gray area. Eric explores stories in the old testament and can interject a wide range of customizable issues from cutting to pornography. The image that is created becomes engraved into the minds and hearts of all who are present; it is not easily forgotten.

True Knowledge

We all want to be used of God, if people know it or not, but there is a process He takes us through. Eric parallels the lives of Moses, Sarah and Joseph as they walked through this process of birth, death and supernatural fulfillment of their visions. The audience is challenged to find vision, continue in the darkness, and not be satisfied with spiritual accomplishments but continue to new ground, answering what is True Knowledge?

Share Your Love

Share Your Love is a passionate message consisting of tangible ways to share God's love not only in our backyards but around the globe. It is a message that brings comfort to those in need and a challenge for others to rescue those who are hopeless. Though a simple illustration of Eric's personal treasure and that found in the old testament the audience is challenged to reevaluate their treasure and reminded to fix eyes their eyes on what is unseen.

Why is the World Broken?

In an ever changing world there are questions that arise in the midst of adversity. Why did God allow this to happen? Why is there poverty? Why is there disease? Why is there disaster? Why is the world broken? Eric explores the wonders of the universe from creation and flips it when presenting the reality of those in need. Eric transcends the audience to another place and allows them to wrestle with the world we live in. This message has a simple yet complex answer.

In The Beginning.

In the beginning God created. The church and the arts, where we are and from a biblical approach where we need to be. Eric exposes the parody, repacked imagery and uncreative thought process that currently plagues and saturates the American Church. He challenges the listener to unlock their creative potential in Christ while redeeming the arts within the church and the church within the post modern world.

Weapons against Darkness.

Eric challenges the audience to use every gift, talent and skill as a weapon against darkness. Through the journey of biblical armor Eric reveals how music and something simple like a smile can be a weapon against darkness. The audience is left motivated to use what God has given them as weapons for the kingdom.

Custom message or topic with live art presentation.

While many of Eric's personal messages and presentations are requested Eric will customize, create and present your theme or idea. While rooting presentations in the word, using art and his unique presentation style Eric will catapult the message forward straight to the hearts of those present. His desire is to partner with YOUR vision and YOUR direction if you have one not just something "canned." This flexibility keeps Eric extremely busy as this is not the norm among world class communicators. He may create a customized art performance that ties into his message for the event or use one that ties in well.

Live Art Presentations with or without short message.

5-45 min.

These presentations are usually accompanied with recorded music track, Danielle's live spoken word or a live band. They are high energy and each unique to technique and "hook." Audiences are left with that "what just happened" feeling as they witness art created before their eyes. Eric is known for creating very large pieces in a very tight time frame, extremely fast and using a wide range of mediums from ice, paint, sand, glass, chemicals, etc. Eric usually keeps audiences guessing till the very end. Because Eric customizes so many of his presentations he has cataloged hundreds of them, below are a few.
